Activity Notes From Pam

Bookmobile—I have received the Bookmobile schedule for this year. The time has changed. The y will be here on Tuesdays from 11:15 to 12:15. Be sure to note this on your calendar.

Food for Thought—Many people have asked me how to do the cryptograms I have for you to do every day. I will give a class on how to solve these fun puzzles on Tuesday, March 3 at 2 pm in the MPR room. When you learn how to solve these puzzles you will look forward to the challenge every day!

Hey Fellas! - When was the last time you went to Chuck-a-Burger for lunch? How would you like to see some classic cars? Let's go cruisin'! Sign up in the activity book for this nostalgic trip on Wednesday, March 4 at 10:30 am.

Wii Bowling— Strike up the band, the St. Louis Senior Wii Bowling League begins another season! League play begins on Thursday, March 5 at 1:30 right here at the Villa. League play will be every Thursday afternoon at a different location. Check you calendar so you don't miss out on the fun! Go Villa!

Game of the Month - We had so much fun playing LRC at the Presidents party we decided to dedicate it as the game of the month. Come to the MPR room on Saturday afternoons to learn how to play this fun game!

Helping Hands— Per your request I will give manicures twice a month. This month manicures will be done on Monday the 9th and 23rd. Be sure to sign up in the activity book.
